Snapple Commission Update!

As you may recall, we stopped payment on 462 August and September 2009 Snapple commission checks. We are updating you on the status of these and other Snapple checks in the pipeline, below. The following information reflects the month of respective commission check(s), and whether the payment was already completed, recently processed, or as yet unpaid.

August – September 2009: Replacement commission checks were issued last week. Please expect to see these soon, if you have not already received them.

October 2009: October commissions were already paid.

November 2009: Commission checks were processed late last week, so expect to see these arriving within the next week or so.

December 2009 – January 2010: Snapple has not provided the DOE with commission information yet. As soon as we receive it, we will process commission payments for these months.
