

Grab a Great Book!

We the teachers of Frank Sinatra School of the Arts would like all students to read for pleasure over the summer. In order to help you find interesting books to read, we have devised the following list of recommendations. There is something for every reader in the suggested titles, which relate to the themes considered during the year. You will be able to make connections between the works you read over the summer and those you read in class. We invite you to take a look at the options and see what books would be most appealing to you.

Once you have read your book, you are to complete the book review form. You may complete the assignment over the summer or after school starts but it is due September 9, 2011. The assignment will count as extra credit for your English class.

BOOK REVIEW

Write a review of the book you have read. This book review should include the cover of your book, a brief paragraph describing the plot of the book, a paragraph discussing at least two of the literary elements and techniques the author utilized, and a final paragraph including your opinion of the book and why you would recommend it.
